Looking for work or thinking about a new career path? The Niagara Together Job Fair is your chance to connect directly with local employers who are actively hiring across a range of industries. This FREE, community-focused event brings together job seekers of all backgrounds — including students, recent grads, newcomers, experienced professionals, and those re-entering the workforce — with employers who value local talent.

What to expect:

- Meet face-to-face with employers hiring for full-time, part-time, seasonal, and entry-level positions
- Explore a wide variety of jobs in retail, hospitality, trades, healthcare, manufacturing, and more
- Get hiring tips and support from employment service providers on site
- Bring your resume and be prepared for on-the-spot interviews!
- No matter your experience level or career goals, Niagara Together is here to help you take the next step.

Your opportunity starts here!
